JERSEY CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT SUPPLEMENTARY INVESTIGATION REPORT

73. Narrative
on 12/8/2006 I did view the video supplied by St. Peter's College (SPC) involving this incident. The tape shows Akhirah Stephenson entering Whalen Hall (SPC student dormitory) with approximately four unidentified males and one female (identified by SPC Director of Security, John Morgan as Lazmen Stroman, dob-7-29-1988, 109 Rossell Ave. Trenton, NJ 08638, student at SPC). The tape also shows the same individuals leaving the dorm directly before the victim comes out to the lobby to report this incident to SPC security. I was unable to identify the males pictured in the video at this time.

Mark Cheathem (witness) stated that as he was being assaulted the actor made a statement that lead him (Cheathem) to believe that the actor was the brother of Ms. Stephenson. He (Cheathem) also stated that he believed that Akirah Stephenson had encouraged the unidentified males to attack him and the victim because he had a verbal dispute with her and she (Stephenson) did not "like" him or his roommates. I spoke with Detective Pappas of the New Brunswick Police Dept. (732-745-5200 x 5217) who stated that there were several hundred "Stephenson's" listed in their computer but none that had the same address as the arrested.

On December 8, 2006, this detective (Broady) did respond to St. Peter's College and did speak with Security Personnel (John Morgan, Director of Campus Safety and Richard Heymeyer, Asst. Dir. of Campus Safety 201-915-0042), regarding an incident that was directly involving this case (X-ref file #41133-06) in which the arrested (A. Stephenson) did respond to SPC and was directly involved in harassing and assaulting a student at SPC

73. Narrative On the above date at approximately 0330 hrs the u/s responded to St. Peter's College Whelan Hall to further investigate the above referenced aggravated assault. Upon arrival the u/s, after conferring with responding officers to establish those facts memorialized in original investigation report, spoke with Director of Residence Life Carla M. Panzella. At this time Ms. Panzella provided the u/s with actor's student emergency information and contact number which belonged to actor's sister, Malika Stephenson. At approximately 0430 hrs this date the u/s spoke with Malika Stephenson who in turn advised u/s that she would attempt to contact actor and have her respond to the West Detective's Office for questioning involving this incident. While preparing this report the u/s was advised by NDC Sgt. Logan that he, had reviewed surveillance video in which actor is seen allowing actors access to scene, and that she had returned to the above scene and was presently being detained by St. Peter's Campus Security. At this time West Patrol unit responded to above location and transported the actor Akirah A. Stephenson and her female friend to the West Detective Base. Upon arrival at the West Detective Base the u/s advised the actor that we had secured video surveillance of her gaining access for three unknown dark skinned male actors into the above location just prior to the assault. When asked by u/s the identification of these actors, including the name of her brother, the actor stated that she did not know them and would provide no further information. At this time, based on prior verbal statements made by victim to Detective Keller at the Jersey City Medical Center Emergency Room and the video surveillance of the actor allowing the three unknown male actor's access to the premises just prior to the assault, the u/s placed Akirah A. Stephenson under arrest for
